

ARCTIC CAT RECALLS SNOWMOBILES

Arctic Cat is recalling about 1,300 snowmobiles. Fuel can leak from the fuel pump at the fuel tank mounting screws, posing a fire hazard to consumers.

Arctic Cat has received two reports of fuel leakage at the fuel pump mounting screws. No injuries have been reported.

The recall involves all Model Year 2010 Arctic Cat 500 Sno Pro models. The model name and number are displayed on the side of the seat and on the engine cowling.

The snowmobiles were sold by Arctic Cat dealerships nationwide from October 2009 to February 2010 for between $7,800 and $8,200. They were made in the United States.

Consumers should stop using these snowmobiles immediately and contact their local Arctic Cat snowmobile dealer to schedule a free repair. Registered owners have been directly notified about this recall by mail.

For additional information, call Arctic Cat at (800) 279-6851 between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. CT Monday through Friday or visit the firm's Web site at www.arctic-cat.com/

The recall is being conducted in cooperation with the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC).
