* Note: These shirts are pre-order only! Extra shirts will not be printed, so order now!

Registration for the Hazmat Challenge 2013 will ensure your team will receive a pre-competition packet including events in the challenge, rules of the competition and a penalty schedule for nonconformance with completion rules.

The registration is free. Personal protective clothing (level A suits, boots, inner and outer gloves) will be provided for competition use. Each team should bring their own SCBA's and masks.

The competition will consist of two (2) person teams performing various hazmat entry related activities while wearing Level A PPE. 1 additional person may be utilized to assist with dressing.

The competition will be limited to the first 10 teams to respond. Each county may submit more than 1 team.

This event allows your Hazardous Materials Team to practice some typical response drills while competing against your colleagues from across the State of New York.
