

Indicators of the Terrorist Attack Cycle: Basic

October 17-18, 2016

TRAINING ANNOUNCEMENT

Course Description:

Indicators of the Terrorist Attack Cycle-Basic (ITAC-B) provides the emergency response and intelligence community as well as other appropriate individuals with an opportunity to develop basic observational skills that, when coupled with appropriate and timely information sharing, could prevent a terrorist attack on a domestic target. The two-day course is designed at the awareness level and is reality-based. It actively engages students in interactive discussions and activities exploring the various phases of a terrorist attack. Students will be able to compare and contrast class activities with real-life case studies. An essential element of the course is the discussion and reinforcement of the need for timely and appropriate information sharing with government and law enforcement agencies through field intelligence officers (or similar positions), Joint Terrorism Task Forces, and related systems.
