

Woodland Tactics & Operations

November 21-22, 2016

TRAINING ANNOUNCEMENT

Course Description:

The Woodland Tactics & Operations course provides law enforcement patrol officers and tactical operators with skill-sets which will allow them to operate successfully and safely in hostile, non-permissive, rural and wilderness terrain. The course serves officers and support personnel who may be involved in activities which include: apprehension of suspects in wooded terrain, counter drug/marijuana eradication operations, counter smuggling & poaching, insertion of surveillance and sniper/observer teams, counter terrorism and rural criminal investigations.

This physically-demanding course includes classroom discussion, field instruction, skill lanes, and scenario-based activities conducted in realistic training environments. Every student should be aware of this and consider self-exclusion if s/he has concerns about their physical condition or suffers from any health or other physical abnormality that may place them at risk. The course will conclude with challenging situational and scenario based training activities, utilizing aggressor role-players and Simunition® weapons systems. At the conclusion of the course, students will be more ready to plan, lead and execute tactical operations in wooded and rural terrain.
