Maritime and Boating Facility Awareness

Maritime facilities have been exploited by terrorists by means of transporting, staging, or storing illicit materials in an effort to avoid detection through traditional law enforcement means

Suspicious Behaviors and Indicators:

- Acting nervous or vague about reason for renting vessel or dock slip
- Exhibiting unfamiliarity with operating a vessel, maritime regulations, or common terminology
- Questioning of crewmembers regarding schedules, passenger capacities, onboard safety procedures and equipment, and the proximity to critical infrastructure and mass gathering event locations
- Deliberate recording of departure/docking procedures to include loading and offloading of vehicles
- Using cash for large transactions or a credit card in someone else's name
- Apparent surveillance of your facility or business by unknown persons monitoring the arrival and/or departure of patrons
- Unusual questions pertaining to law enforcement capabilities and presence at/or around the marina, waterway, dock, or ferry
