TRAINING COURSE AVAILABLE UPON REQUEST

ADVANCED ICS FOR MAJOR AND/OR COMPLEX INCIDENTS (I-400)

Description

This course is designed for senior personnel who are expected to perform in management capacity of Area Command or multi-agency coordination (MAC) within the Incident Command System (ICS). It is further intended for those who have lead capacity in a major and/or complex incident environment

Topics & Issues to be Covered

- Identifying the incident management process of command and general staff functions during complex incidents as prescribed by the Incident Command System and the National Incident Management System (NIMS) Command and Management component.
- Describing the implementation of the incident management process on complex incidents (Type I and Type II).
- Describing the management and coordination process during multiple incidents

Prerequisites

The prerequisite to enroll in this course is completion of the ICS Intermediate (ICS-300) course. If you were issued a FOG - Field Operations Guide during your 300 course – please bring it with you. Information on the National Incident Management System can be found at <http://www.fema.gov/emergency/nims/index.shtm>

Who Should Attend

ICS 400 provides training for senior personnel expected to lead in a major and/or complex incident environment (Type I and Type II), particularly as qualified Incident Management Team personnel, Area Command personnel, and Multi-Agency Coordination Group representatives. The NYS Preparedness Steering Committee guidance on NIMS training, may be found at: <http://www.dhses.ny.gov/oem/training/>
