

MGT-361 MANAGING CRITICAL INCIDENTS AT INSTITUTIONS OF HIGHER EDUCATION

No. of Openings: Min.30/Max. 40

NASSAU COUNTY

3 DAYS

NOVEMBER 13-15, 2019

LONG ISLAND

ANNOUNCED: AUGUST 5, 2019

Description:

Is your campus prepared? This course trains campus administrators and managers, public safety and law enforcement personnel, and other campus and community response partners to effectively manage critical incidents by applying and implementing an all-hazards, multi-disciplinary, command, and management team approach as described in the National Incident Management System's (NIMS) Incident Command System (ICS) and Multi-Agency Coordination Systems (MACS). The course places specific emphasis on the unique aspects of responding to critical incidents on higher education institution campuses and concludes with a role play exercise customized to the community in which the course is delivered.

Objectives:

Effectively manage a critical incident by applying and implementing an all-hazards, multi-disciplinary, command and management team approach as described in the National Incident Management System's (NIMS) Incident Command System. To reach this objective participants will be able to:

- Analyze a case of an actual incident to identify and discuss incident management considerations that need to be addressed in a disaster affecting higher education institutions.
- Identify the roles, responsibilities and relationships of key stakeholders in the management and coordination of an incident.
- Recognize and discuss the components of emergency management preparedness and prevention.
- Identify strategic issues and considerations that should be taken into account during the initial response phase, including changes required in decision making and leadership strategies.
- Identify the fundamental roles and apply the functions of the Incident Command System (ICS) as defined by the National Incident Management System.
- Discuss the role of the campus and community Emergency Operations Centers and how they relate to the Multi-Agency Coordination System.
