

Training Announcement:

National Improvised Explosives Familiarization

October 23, 2017

State Preparedness Training Center

Course Description

The National Improvised Explosives Familiarization (NIEF) program is a Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) initiative to train bomb technicians, other first responders, and the chemical industry on the potential uses of common industrial and household chemicals in the manufacture of explosives. Students will receive information on explosive precursor chemicals, the manufacture of improvised explosives, oversight and tripwire programs, and the hazards of clandestine laboratories.

This course includes both classroom instruction and a live range demonstration of some of the explosive materials discussed in class. At the conclusion of the course, participants will have gained a better appreciation for and understanding of the hazards posed by improvised explosives.

Topics Include

Improvised Explosive Precursors, Chemical Countermeasures Programs, Improvised Explosive Manufacturing, Clandestine Laboratory Awareness, and a Range Demonstration.

Course Provider

This course is being taught by a team of subject matter experts from the FBI and partner agencies. The scope, concept, and content of this course was developed by the FBI.

New SPTC Registration Process

In 2017, DHSES launched a new registration process for the State Preparedness Training Center (SPTC). Course registrations will be accepted through the web-based SNAP system. All student registrations will be reviewed by the SPTC. Once you are accepted into this course, you will receive a confirmation email from the Center.

To register for this course, access the SPTC's Training Calendar online:

<http://www.dhSES.ny.gov/training/calendar/?agency=SPTC>.

Please be sure to select the proper course and date when registering.

No Show Policy

Failure to attend a class you have registered for can result in restriction on future course attendance and agency notification. If you have not received a confirmation or denial two weeks prior to the course date, please contact DHSES, SPTC at (315) 768-5689 or SPTC.INFO@dhSES.ny.gov

Lodging

Lodging will be provided on the night of October 22, 2017 for public sector personnel.

You are eligible for lodging if your residence and official work station are more than 50 miles from the SPTC and you are public sector personnel. Lodging is not available for federal employees or private industry participants. You must be enrolled in the course and have received lodging confirmation from the SPTC before arriving at the Center, or your lodging will not be covered and you will not be allowed in the class.

If you have any questions, please contact the SPTC at 315-768-5689 or SPTC.INFO@dhSES.ny.gov prior to arriving at the Center.
