

Training Announcement: Officer Survival Tactics

November 20th—22nd, 2019

State Preparedness Training Center

Course Description

Officer Survival Tactics is designed to teach room entry and room clearing skills and improve the overall situational awareness and survivability skills of law enforcement officers. The course exposes law enforcement officers to basic tactics, techniques and procedures that, when properly employed, can increase the officer's survivability if/when encountering a potentially high-risk situation. The emphasis of this course is on the individual skills of law enforcement officers to successfully address a variety of police related duties such as responding to domestic disputes, noise complaints, conducting high risk traffic stops, etc. all with minimal injuries and loss of life.

Topics Include

Discuss and demonstrate Tactical Emergency Casualty Care techniques and practices, review of historical data summarizing the circumstances of assaults on law enforcement officers, discuss commonly accepted mental and physical conditioning practices, demonstrate proficiency in individual Close Quarter Tactics.

Times

November 20th—22nd, 2019: Registration and Check-In (7:30am-8:00am), Course (8:00am-5:00pm each day)

Audience

Attendees must be sworn police/peace officers who are authorized to carry a firearm in the course of their duties and routinely respond to domestic disputes, noise complaints, perform traffic stops, and conduct routine patrol to enforce state and local laws. Attendees must also be a U.S. citizen or have prior approval to attend. The New York State Division of Homeland Security and Emergency Services (DHSES) reserves the right to determine eligibility for this course.

*NOTE* This course is comprised of several activities requiring physical exertion. This includes a great deal of time walking, jogging and standing, as well as the negotiation of stairwells between multiple floor levels. Some of this activity may be conducted in low-light conditions. Accordingly every student should be aware of this and consider self-exclusion if s/he has concerns about their physical condition or suffers from any health or other physical abnormality that may place them at risk during periods of significant physical exertion.

Student Equipment Requirements

Students should bring their duty belt and wear comfortable clothes conducive for force-on-force, reality-based training. Jeans and BDU pants are acceptable, as well as long sleeve t-shirts or button down long sleeve shirts and shoes that you normally wear during the course of duty. You may bring a ballistic vest if you wish, but it is not mandatory. All necessary protective gear required for force-on-force training utilizing non-lethal training ammunition (NLTA) will be provided to you. If you have your own protective gear, such as Simunition® or ATK® that you normally wear during FoF training, you may bring it, but it must be approved by staff before allowing you to use it during the training. Each officer is responsible for properly securing his or her weapon(s) during the training course. No personal or agency weapon (including impact and less-than-lethal weapons), live ammunition, weapon magazines, or flash bangs are to be on the officer or in the training area (including classroom) at any time during this course.

Registration Process

All student registrations will be reviewed by the SPTC with approvals sent to students NO LATER THAN 2 weeks prior to the start of the class. Registration does not guarantee a seat in the class. If you are accepted into this course, you will receive a confirmation email from the Center.
