No. of Openings: Min.20/Max. 40

NASSAU COUNTY

3 DAYS

NOVEMBER 5-7, 2019

LONG ISLAND

ANNOUNCED: AUGUST 15, 2019

Description:

This course prepares healthcare responders to utilize the Hospital Incident Command System (HICS)-integrating into the community emergency response network while operating an Emergency Treatment Area (ETA) as hospital first responders during a mass casualty incident (MCI) involving patient contamination. The healthcare responders will determine and use appropriate Personal Protective Equipment (PPE), and conduct triage followed by decontamination of ambulatory and non-ambulatory patients as members of a Hospital Emergency Response Team (HERT)

Objectives:

- Analyze the need, composition, and use of a HERT during an emergency, MCI, or disaster situation.
- Summarize the organization and operation of HICS as it integrates with the Incident Command System (ICS) during response to an MCI
- Differentiate the medical responses to a variety of illnesses and injuries that may result from an MCI
- Select and use the appropriate level of PPE as hospital first receivers in response to a disaster involving patient contamination
- Structure the healthcare facility ETA to support medical operations in response to an MCI
- Establish a HERT that meets all safety requirements, provides security to the hospital, and efficiently manages patients for processing into the hospital facility for follow-up treatment
- Compare decontamination methods and procedures
- Perform Simple Triage and Rapid Treatments (START) and JumpStart procedures within the ETA during a hospital response to an MCI involving contamination
- Conduct operations in an ETA while wearing appropriate PPE in response to an MCI involving contamination
