Virtual Training Opportunity:
Critical Infrastructure Security and Resilience Awareness Course (AWR-213)
July 13-14, 2021

Course Basics
This virtual course will be offered on July 13 and 14, 2021 from 8:30am-12:30pm (EST) each day. Access information will be provided in advance to all registered participants.

Course Provider
This virtual training will be provided by the Texas A&M Engineering Extension Service (TEEX).

Course Description
This course will introduce participants to the key terms, policy, guidance, and preparedness efforts required to safeguard the nation’s critical infrastructure. Participants will discuss the risk management framework, describe Federal critical infrastructure security and resilience and information sharing programs, and relate critical infrastructure programs to individual actions. Focus will be placed on local preparedness efforts as they relate to the national approach to critical infrastructure security and resilience, enabling stakeholders to address local planning within a common framework. Informed planning is consistent with accepted emergency management standards as the basis for planning across the mission areas of prevention, protection, mitigation, response, and recovery. Individuals completing this course, in combination with MGT–315, MGT-310, and MGT-414, will be awarded the TEEX Infrastructure Protection Certificate.

Course Objectives
- Discuss critical infrastructure protection challenges
- Address the roles and responsibilities of critical infrastructure partners
- Highlight relevant information sharing programs to support critical infrastructure protection

Audience
