

Joseph Maurer has over 20 years of law enforcement experience with the New York State Police. Inv. Maurer is currently assigned as an Investigator in the NYSP Counter Terrorism Intelligence Unit (CTIU), working primarily in Central and Northern NY. In his current role, CTIU Members review and analyze intelligence and information in conjunction with federal, county and local law enforcement agencies to develop commonalities and trends in their respective areas and forward intelligence to personnel at the NYSIC and the appropriate investigative agency.

Throughout his career Inv. Maurer has served in several other roles throughout New York State. He worked in the Protective Services Unit, providing dignitary protection in New York City and surrounding areas. He also spent 8 years conducting all types of criminal investigations as an Investigator within the NYSP Bureau of Criminal Investigation.

Inv. Maurer graduated from Le Moyne College in Syracuse, NY, with a degree in Psychology & Criminal Justice.