

John Vallarelli

Captain with the Metropolitan Transportation Authority Police Department

John Vallarelli is a Captain with the Metropolitan Transportation Authority Police Department, his current assignment in the Office of the Chief of Police as the Radio System Administrator for the Metropolitan Regional Radio System. He is a 29 Year veteran and had nearly 20 years serving in volunteer fire and EMS agencies and is a former Communications Operator with Westchester County Department of Emergency Services and County Police.