

Course Description

MGT-905 Advanced ICS-400 Command and General Staff– Complex Incidents

Description:

ICS 400 is intended for an audience of experienced responders and other senior emergency management personnel who may perform in a management capacity for major or complex incidents (Type 1 or Type 2 incidents). Large and complex incidents that require the application of area command don't happen often. Although this is an advanced ICS course, it is not intended to develop mastery of area command. The purpose of this course is to expose students to the concepts of utilizing area command in major and complex incidents.

Topics Covered:

- Fundamental review for Command and General Staff Positions
- Complex Incident Management
- Area Command
- Interconnectivity of NIMS Command and Coordination Structures

Prerequisites:

- IS-100.b, FEMA Introduction to the Incident Command System, ICS-100
