

MGT-406: Community Threat Group Identification, Assessment, and Information Reporting for Rural Law Enforcement Officers

Description:

This eight-hour, management-level instructor-led course focuses on rural law enforcement officials and the presence of community threat groups that impact rural communities. The course focuses on strengthening information gathering regarding community threat groups, and emphasizes information sharing with fusion centers utilizing the Suspicious Activity Reporting Initiative. The course also trains participants in how to modify or create an information sharing policy for rural law enforcement agencies that utilizes the suspicious activity reports.

Course Objectives:

- Identify the criminal activities of community threat groups (CTG) and networks that impact rural communities across the country.
- Classify domestic and international community threat groups on the basis of institutionalization, sophistication and likelihood for convergence.
- Use a Suspicious Activity Report (SAR) to report suspicious activity carried out by CTGs in and around rural communities.
- Identify resources needed to implement an If You See Something, Say Something Campaign.
- Develop a policy that provides standing operating procedures to implement SAR while engaging the community.
