

AWR-313 HOMEMADE EXPLOSIVES:
AWARENESS, RECOGNITION, AND RESPONSE

NO. OF OPENINGS: 50

NASSAU COUNTY

1 DAY

AUGUST 8, 2016

ANNOUNCED: JUNE 6, 2016

Description:

The New Mexico Institute of Mining and Technology (New Mexico Tech) will be presenting this course. To succeed in preparing for and responding to future homemade explosive events in the United States, emergency response agencies must complete extensive preparatory actions—developing plans and procedures, acquiring equipment, and conducting training and exercises that focus on likely scenarios. This program supports these imperatives by providing current training to first responders with the knowledge, skills, and abilities to effectively prevent, interdict, and respond to an imminent threat caused by homemade explosives laboratories and producers.
